Program Vision

The College of Law and Political Science seeks to prepare graduates in the field of law to work in government institutions and to utilize their specialization in practical and applied fields.

Program Mission

To prepare and graduate distinguished scientific and leadership competencies in the field of law, to develop the knowledge base in legal scientific research for the service of the local, regional, and international communities, as well as to train and develop students' intellectual and cognitive abilities, while promoting social and cultural values and responding to the requirements of the local labor market.

Program Objectives

- To acquire and understand the legal sciences, solve existing legal problems, and promote the values of tax awareness among graduates due to its importance.
- To deal with legal problems and develop appropriate solutions for them.
- To promote the values of ensuring that rights are delivered to their rightful owners through legal means.
- To provide society with distinguished law graduates qualified to practice the legal profession after obtaining membership in the Bar Association in accordance with its regulations.
- To establish and promote professional ethics, its authenticity, and its confidentiality, so that lawyers are fully prepared to achieve the desired objectives in the recovery of lost rights.
